2009 VISUAL ARTS Award

Sponsored by the Family Medicine Education Consortium

As a discipline, Family Medicine needs to formulate and deliver a compelling message that describes who we are, what we value and what we do. We believe that the visual arts offer a powerful medium for sharing Family Medicine's vision, interests and value.

We invite submissions of visual art that reflect our identity as family physicians and our mission to serve as the backbone of healthcare to the world. The goal of this award process is twofold: one, to honor the creative talents of Family Physicians (the renaissance men and women of medicine) and two, to take the best of the submissions and generate materials that can be used to make Family Medicine more visible to colleagues, students, patients and policy makers. Faculty and clinicians, residents-in-training, and medical students in the northeast region of the US are eligible to participate.

Photographs, paintings, sculptures, drawings, posters, digital movies or any other visual media that can be used to celebrate the richness and diversity in family medicine, show the academic rigor of our field, and support our agenda of reforming health care through the Future of Family Medicine are welcomed. A panel of reviewers composed of Family Medicine faculty and creative professionals will review each submission with an eye to its emotional honesty, technical merit, and success in communicating the message that Family Medicine is a force to contend with. All submissions will remain the property of the artist but rights to use the images in public relations materials and campaigns to promote Family Medicine will be granted to the FMEC. Issues related to ownership and use will be discussed with the award winner(s) prior to use.

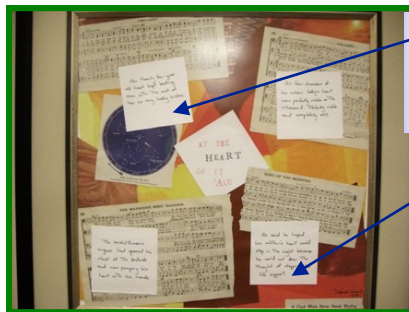

The best submission(s) will be honored at the 2009 STFM: Northeast Regional Meeting in an exhibit held during the meeting. The winning submissions will receive a complimentary registration to the 2009 STFM NorthEast Region meeting to be held at the Rye Town Hilton in Rye Brook, NY October 30-November 1, 2009. Authors will be responsible for their own travel expenses.

How to Submit: All submissions should be sent via email attachment by May 15, 2009 to Ms. Nicole Day (nicole.day@fmec.net) or faxed to: (501) 647-0370. Copies of work may be submitted as digital photographs; works that are three-dimensional should include multiple views. Please include your current mailing address, phone number and email address so that we may contact you. Current mailing address preferred, along with forwarding address after June 2009, if necessary.

AT THE HEART OF IT ALL

"Her twenty four year old heart kept beating, even with the rest of her so very badly broken."

"He said he hoped his mother's heart would stop in the night because he could not bear the thought of stopping her life support."

PLEASE SHARE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT WITH YOUR STUDENTS, RESIDENTS AND COMMUNITY-BASED COLLEAGUES.
