2010 “Emerging Leader” Award

The Family Medicine Education Consortium (FMEC), through its FMEC Northeast Region Meeting, seeks to identify, encourage and support promising Family Medicine senior residents, junior faculty and clinicians in practice (three years or less experience) who have the potential to be future leaders in Family Medicine academic and community service efforts. Therefore, the Family Medicine Education Consortium has created the Emerging Leaders Initiative Program.

Nomination Process:

We seek nominations from the northeast region of the US. All current FMEC members may serve as nominators. A nomination should include a letter (2 pages maximum) summarizing the individual’s leadership experience and potential and a copy of the nominee’s resume. Nominations will be received through May 15, 2010.

Recognition:

Individuals selected for this program will be recognized and invited to a luncheon on Friday, October 29th during the 2010 FMEC Northeast Region Meeting to be held at the Hershey Lodge & Convention Center in Hershey, PA. A discussion on leadership skills will follow. Each selected individual(s) will be assigned a faculty mentor who will meet with him/her during the meeting and will continue to mentor the selected individual(s) over the following year.

The individuals selected for the Emerging Leader Award will also receive a complimentary registration to the conference and two complimentary hotel nights at the hotel.

A panel drawn from the Board of Trustees of the Family Medicine Education Consortium will review the nominations. The nominee should currently be active within the northeast region of the US.

Please see The Nominee Contact Information form on reverse of this announcement for submitting nominations.
