

2023 FMEC Annual Meeting – FMEC Healthcare Innovators Network
Rhode Island Convention Center, Providence RI (room TBD)
Friday, October 13, 2023, 8am to 5pm (approximate)

The 2023 FMEC Healthcare Innovators Network program is being developed now. Anticipated speakers and topics are below. Each presentation is given in a 30-minute block with time for questions. Periodically during the day, expert facilitators help attendees reflect on what they've heard.

A final schedule will be released in September 2023. Please join us in Providence!

Potential Healthcare Innovators Network Speakers Include:

Justin Schrager, MD

An ER doc (son of an FP) with a brilliant IT platform that facilitates the involvement of patients, families, providers and others in a patient's ER care. The platform will allow the primary care doc in the community to be directly involved in real time.

Scott Conard, MD and Alan Roth, DO

The Converging Health Advanced Primary Care model is in year 3 of its implementation at Jamaica Hospital. Come learn about the project's significant progress.

Wendy Brooks Barr, MD – One Medical

One Medical is a primary care solution challenging the industry status quo by making quality care more affordable, accessible and enjoyable. They are transforming healthcare, improving the experience for everyone involved - from patients and clinicians, to employers and health networks.

Daniel McArter, MD - ChenMed

ChenMed's doctors improve the health of the neediest seniors every day with their intensive, high-touch care model. Each physician has a small patient panel that creates deep patient relationships with a focus on prevention. Come hear about what's new at ChenMed.

Michael Fine, MD

Dr. Fine is organizing a movement titled Primary Care for All Americans. It has some very radical ideas about how to change the U.S. health care system.

James Damos, MD

Dr. Damos and Larry Bauer have written a treatment for a family medicine-based TV show, showcasing the power of narrative to influence health care policy.

Bryce Heinbaugh

Bryce and his team have made great progress in expanding the number of Community Owned Health Plans in marketplaces throughout the U.S.

Jack Ricchiuto

Jack is a physician coach and author who has written 32 books and who blogs on a weekly basis. Hear about the virtual storytelling/writing workshop he's leading for family physicians.

Ron Stout, MD

As head of the Ardmere Institute of Health, he has a model of whole person health care that brings together those in primary care, integrative health and lifestyle medicine.

Len Fromer, MD

His company, Turner Capital Investment, has a model that provides funding for health care for organizations that serve the underserved. Here about successes and learn how you can submit a proposal for funding to create or expand facilities in underserved communities.

Rebecca Etz, PhD

Hear from Dr. Etz about her work on a study about comprehensive healthcare, or attending to the whole person in the patient-centered medical home.
