

2022 FMEC Annual Meeting – September 15 to September 18, 2022
Hyatt Regency Crystal City, Arlington, VA

Friday, September 16, 2022

Meeting the New ACGME Requirements: Learning Collaboratives and More
Friday, September 16, 8am to 12pm

Objectives: At the close of this session, participants will be able to:

- Identify major changes to the ACGME requirements for family medicine residency training and related barriers and opportunities
- Initiate planning for cross-institutional learning collaboratives with other family medicine residency programs
- Identify key elements for success of a patient/community advisory council and steps to establish or improve one
- Educate program faculty about master adaptive learning, diverse learner needs, and related issues to improve training at their residency program

AGENDA

8am – Welcome and Introductions

Raj Woolever, MD, Residency Director, Maine-Dartmouth Family Medicine Residency

8:30am – Overview of the ACGME Requirements

Stacy Potts, MD, Vice Chair of Education, University of Massachusetts Department of Family Medicine and Community Health and Past Chair, ACGME Review Committee for Family Medicine and chair of the ACGME Family Medicine Writing Group

9:00am – Learning Collaboratives and the IHI Model for Improvement: The Basics, Scaling, and More

Mario DeMarco, MD, Director of Family Medicine Obstetrics, Associate Professor of Clinical Medicine and Family Health, Penn Medicine

9:30am – Small Group Discussions: Collaboration Needs and Ideas

10:15am – Break

10:30am - Patient/Family/Community Advisory Councils

Stuart Green, DMH, LCSW, Associate Director and Behavioral Scientist, Overlook Family Medicine Residency Program; Clinical Assistant Professor of Family And Community Medicine, Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University

11:00am – Building Inclusive Environments and Supporting Learners from Diverse Backgrounds

Leon McCrea II, MD, MPH, Associate Professor; Program Director, Family Medicine Residency; Senior Associate Dean of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion; Family, Community & Preventive Medicine Department, Drexel University College of Medicine

11:30am - Master Adaptive Learning/Individual Learning Plans

Stacy Potts, MD, Vice Chair of Education, University of Massachusetts Department of Family Medicine and Community Health

Noon – Adjourn